

Monday May 19th – Workshop

Rewilding in a wildlife disease perspective: The interface between wildlife and animals in rewilding projects and extensive production systems

Location: Patoanatomisk teater, Ridebanevej 3, 1870 Frederiksberg

Time	Presentation	Presenter
12.00-12.15	Introduced European bison ( Bison bonasus ) in an island ecosystem: Parasitological perspectives	Kurt Buchmann UCPH
12.15-12.30	Talk: BTV 3 in bison, Vildmosen and Netherlands	Monica Lønborg Frederiksen Veterinarian Wild Vet Consult
12.30-12.50	Outbreak of bluetongue virus in Denmark and a new surveillance program for viruses in wild ruminants	Christina Lazov SSI
12.50-13.10	Reintroduction of Hypoderma bovis through american bison imported from Lithuania. Experiences from parasite surveillance in year-round grazing beef cattle conservation projects	Helena Mejer/Anne Sofie Stensgaard UCPH
13.10-13.25	Practice veterinarians view at rewilding and the wildlife interface – need for more knowledge?	Henrik Hagbard Veterinarian, Naturplejedyr, Western Zealand
Break
13.40-14.00	HPAI in Denmark	Charlotte Hjulager SSI
14.00-14.45 Discussion	What's going on in the Nordic countries, Identification of attention points- Need for research – need for networking/existing networks?
14.45-15.15	Quick round sightseeing at the department or walk in the campus garden if the weather is nice.	